

SOUTH BOSTON MAN DIES HERE
Andrew Broadus Willingham Succumbs at Virginia Hospital.

A GALLANT CONFEDERATE
Leader in Business, Religious and Municipal Matters—He Was Much Beloved.

Mr. A. B. Willingham, of South Boston, died at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at the Virginia Hospital, in this city, having been brought here for treatment about three weeks ago. The remains were taken to his late home yesterday, and the funeral will take place to-day.

Mr. Willingham was born in Halifax county, sixty years ago. During his early life he was engaged in the mercantile business. He entered the Confederate service in 1861, and served throughout the war. He was enlisted in the Fifty-first Regiment, and was later General Armstrong when that officer was killed at Gettysburg. After the war, he again entered the mercantile business, which he pursued until 1883, when he engaged in the real estate business in South Boston, where he has since resided. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Town Council, a position which he had held at different times for many years. He was an active and public-spirited citizen, and will be greatly missed.

For nearly twenty-five years Mr. Willingham had been a deacon in the Baptist Church, also superintendent of the Sunday school and member of the choir. Soon after the war he married Miss Mildred Pollard, of this county, a sister of the late Dr. Pollard, of South of Dan, who survives him, with three sons and two daughters; Messrs. A. B. Jr., of Farmville; W. A. Willingham, of New York; and E. Willingham, of Durham, N. C., and Mrs. W. A. Gray, of Mullins, S. C., and Miss Sadie Willingham, of South Boston.

Mr. Willingham had been in feeble health for several months, and had visited several resorts in search of health, and more recently was brought to the Virginia Hospital, where he died. His remains were taken home yesterday afternoon, and the funeral will take place from the Baptist Church, at 2 o'clock to-day.

The interment will be made at Oakridge Cemetery this afternoon.

San Francisco Officer Raids Disorderly House Under Pressure. Many Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Police Captain James E. Sullivan, who was before the grand jury yesterday, was questioned as to why he had not closed the disorderly place of Jackson Street known as the "municipal crib." This place contains about 100 women, and before the fire several hundred women were located there.

It is understood that Martin testified that he had been told by his superiors not to molest the place. He also said that he had not been able to secure the needed evidence against the resort.

Last night Captain Martin and Chief Dihan held a conference, and later the place was raided by the police, with the result that a large number of the inmates were taken to the city prison.

PRESIDENT COMING IN AT HOME-STRETCH PACE
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The navy department today received a wireless dispatch from the battleship Louisiana, giving its location at 9:30 this morning 300 miles north of San Juan.

This indicates that the ship bringing the president home from his Panama and Porto Rican visit is making about thirty knots an hour, although the message, apparently mixed in sending, and is rather confusing to officials.

CARUSO FAILS TO PAY HIS FINE
Senior Counsel Steps In and Arranges for Appeal to Higher Court.

WHAT WILL THE PUBLIC DO?
Roman Paper Says His Reception When He First Appears Will Be Final Verdict.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The $10 fine imposed upon Enrico Caruso, the famous Italian opera singer, in the Yorkville police court yesterday, after he had been declared guilty of annoying women in the money-house at Central Park, was not paid to-day.

One of the attorneys had gone to the court with the intention of paying the fine under protest, and the money was about to be passed across the clerk's desk when Caruso's senior counsel stepped into the courtroom and brought the proceeding to a halt.

A consultation between counsel and the court followed, and it was agreed to permit the matter to go until Monday. In the meantime Caruso has been paroled in the custody of his counsel. Caruso's counsel to-day reiterated the announcement made yesterday that an appeal will be taken.

"I saw Mr. Caruso at his hotel to-day," said the attorney, "and had him sign an application for a writ of habeas corpus, and he was asked for immediately one of the judges of the court of general sessions. It is for one of them to sign the paper and allow for the dismissal of the application for an appeal."

Terrific Shock.
"Mr. Caruso felt," continued the lawyer, "that Magistrate Baker had treated him very fairly during the hearing, and that his character was being fully vindicated. It was more than a surprise to him when he heard that the court found him guilty. The shock was most terrible to Caruso, who is a highly sensitive man, particularly as he had firmly believed the testimony clearly exonerated him."

Disatisfaction was also expressed by the attorney with the way in which Deputy Police Commissioner Mathot had insisted on the introduction of evidence which the counsel for Caruso claimed was not proper matter to come before the court, and which he said was introduced for theatrical effect, and to prejudice the public against the defendant.

It is expected that the appeal in the Caruso case will be argued next Monday. His counsel to-day asked for a full transcript of the police court proceedings for use in connection with the appeal.

Court of Last Resort.
ROME, Nov. 24.—The announcement that Signor Caruso, the tenor, was found guilty in a New York police court yesterday of annoying women in the Central Park money-house, and fined $10, reached Rome at late this morning. The morning papers, published the news.

In so doing the paper added: "Caruso will appeal, but the real verdict will be given by the people of New York in the manner in which they receive him the first time he appears before an audience after his condemnation."

ENGLISH HANDS COME.
Thirteen Farm Laborers Are Now at Commissioner's Disposal.

Commissioner of Agriculture George W. Palmer was much gratified yesterday at the arrival of thirteen able-bodied farm laborers from England, who were sent to him by agents to engage with farmers in Virginia.

About a dozen families from the same country will arrive in a short while, and Mr. Palmer is anxious to have them placed in their own country.

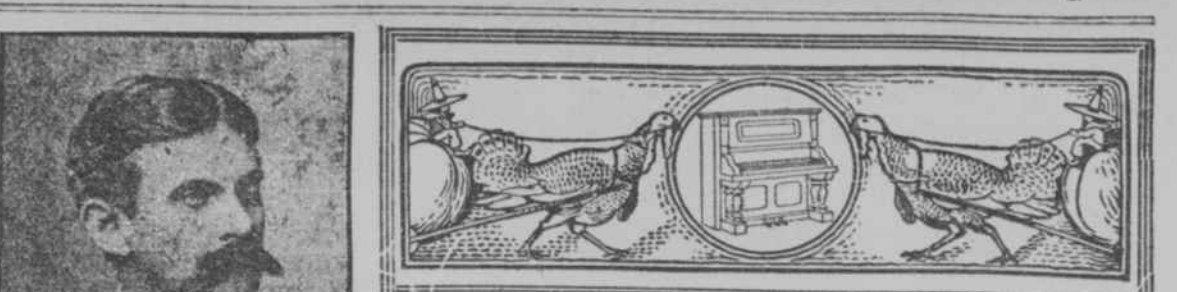

No contracts are made with the men prior to their coming to this country. This is in violation of the United States law, and the subject of immigration, in the first place, should be necessary, if such a thing should become necessary, the government would be ready to see that the law is enforced.

WORM EATING AWAY CHILD'S EYE REMOVED
CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Seven-year-old Edward Behringer, and his 12-year-old brother, were brought to the City Police hospital yesterday.

A worm, which was slowly eating its way through the ball of the eye, was removed. The Behringer boy's home is on a truck farm near Niles, Minn. He had been in the habit of eating radishes and other truck just as it came from the garden, and it is supposed one of the radishes contained the bacilli of a tape worm, which in some manner lodged in the eye.

SAY DISORDER IN TANGIER VERY BAD

TANGIER, MOROCCO, November 24.—The members of the diplomatic corps to-day drew up a collective note to the Moroccan government, describing the intolerable situation of affairs in Tangier and demanding that immediate measures be taken to restore order.

PARIS, November 24.—Confidential instructions have been sent to Admiral Touchard to prepare a battleship squadron to start for Morocco on a moment's notice, if such a step should become necessary. The battleship now ready for sea consist of the Suffren, Saint Louis and Charlemagne. They will be joined at Tangier by the cruiser Jeanne d'Arc, and the torpedo boat La Motte-Picquet.

Admiral Touchard came to Paris to-day and had a long conference with Minister of Marine Thomson.

Pleasant Social.
A delightful social was given in the Fairmount Christian Church Thursday night by the Ladies' Aid Society to its members and their friends. The object of the entertainment was to bring together the members of all the societies and the members of the church, so that they could become better acquainted with one another. A large crowd was in attendance, and a most enjoyable evening was had by all present. The church was prettily decorated in palms, ferns, cut flowers and shaded lamps. Music was also a pleasant feature of the evening's pleasure. After an hour or two of pleasant social intercourse the ladies served refreshments. Brief remarks were made by Rev. Hugh Sublett, the pastor, and other members of the church.

Surprise Party.
Miss Mary Childrey, of Oakwood Avenue, was the recipient of a delightful surprise party Thursday evening, from 4 to 6 o'clock, which was given her by the members of her class at the Fairmount High School. So well was the secret kept Miss Childrey was taken completely by surprise when her classmates gathered in her home shortly after her arrival home from school, where she had spent school hours with them without a hint of the pleasure in store for her. The young folks indulged in various games until refreshments were served, after which the merry party dispersed. Among those present were: Misses May Gentry, Nellie Childrey, Mary Johnson, Gertrude Gentry, Margaret McCullough, Messrs. Carroll Canepa, Francis Childrey, Hubert Perkins, Frank and Wilford Childrey, Miss Helen Dickinson and Miss Robinson, who chaperoned the young folks.

War.
In the so-called "glorious" victories of Caesar a million men perished on the field of battle. Napoleon, in the short space of nine years, was authorized to spend $1,000,000,000 in the purchase of his army. In the ten years following the attack on Fort Sumter the world destroyed in war 1,400,000 lives and $6,000,000,000 of property. Two-thirds of the combined budgets of the various States run each year are devoted to the maintenance of armed forces and to the service of a debt practically the whole of which was incurred by wars. War expenses in Europe absorb one-half of all the wealth created by productive labor. In the comparatively insignificant war of England with the Boers England lost 22,450 men and $1,000,000,000 of property. Three hundred and fifty thousand men were withdrawn by her from productive industry to engage in the destruction of war. Military expenditures in the United States during the last eight years have absorbed $1,500,000,000.—International Journal of Ethics.
